

“EBONY” Jetware.

“Ebony” appears to be a separate genre of Jetware. It was at first thought to have been made exclusively by Dudson but recent researches suggest an E J Ridgway, Bedford works attribution or possibly a collaboration of the two firms. This is a work in progress. Thanks for help in research and examples is due to Alison Morgan, Curator Dudson museum, Angela Grant (office @ridgwaypatternbook.org.uk), Mike Hurst, Rosie Cooke and Clare and Alan Walker.
